Additional Information regarding PCN# SC022301

As most of you already know that we have decided to replace the existing AT17Cxxx parts with AT17LVxxx parts by end of this year. This Sales Bulletin will provide any additional information regarding PCN# SC022301 which was sent out on June 12th, 2002. All the existing LV parts are fully complied with the standard 5V specifications. This is an upgrade for the customers, with no additional cost.

What do I do with this table?

Please let all the existing AT17Cxxx users know regarding the PCN# SC022301 and ask them to qualify the AT17LVxxx parts as soon as possible. Once qualified, the customer's Approved Vendor's List MUST be changed to reflect the new part number. Please notice that Last Time Buy for AT17Cxxx is October 31st, 2002 and Last Day Ship is December 31st, 2002.

How do I get samples?

You may either have customer fill out the sample request form from the web site at <http://www.atmel.com/atmel/samples/> or fill out the sample request form and send it to your local Atmel sales office.

If you have any questions, please feel free to ask.

Thank you very much for your great support!

Sincerely yours,

Itsu Wang
